

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS POLICY

Objective	This Related Party Transactions (RPTs) Policy shall be instituted to properly review, approval and reporting of transactions which may be entered in to between and among the Berjaya Philippines, Inc. (the Company), its subsidiaries, affiliates, directors and officers as applicable.
Definition of Terms	Related Party For the purposes of this policy, a Related Party means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parties that are members of the Company (i.e. subsidiaries, affiliates and special purpose entities) that the Company exerts direct control over, or that exerts direct or indirect control over the Company and;
	Related Party Transaction Refers to a transfer of resources, services, or obligations between a reporting entity and among Related Parties, regardless of whether a price is charged. It should be interpreted broadly to include not only transaction entered into with Related Parties, but also outstanding transactions entered into with an unrelated party that subsequently becomes a Related Party.
	Material RPTs Those transactions, contracts, ventures and agreements that meet the threshold value of no less than ₱10,000,000.
	Arm's Length Principle Refers to the principle that requires the transaction with a Related Party be made under comparable conditions and circumstances as a transaction with an independent party. It is founded on the premise that if market forces drive the terms and conditions agreed upon in an independent party transaction, the pricing of the transaction would reflect the true economic value of the contributions made by each entity in that transaction.
